

Teen Stuff
March
2019

Teen Stuff

Volume 18 Issue 3

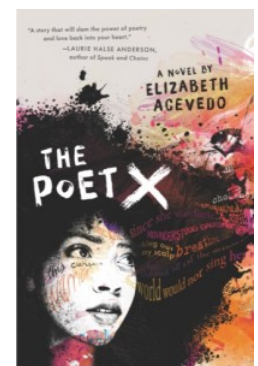

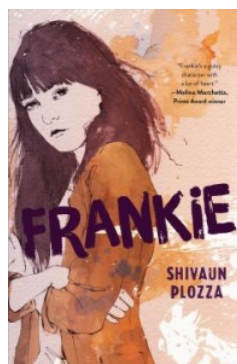

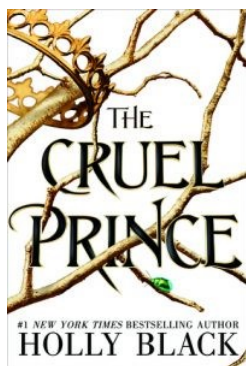

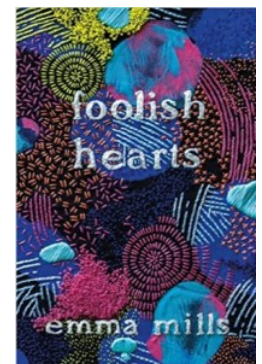

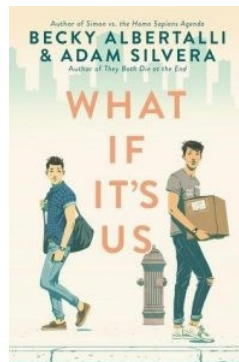

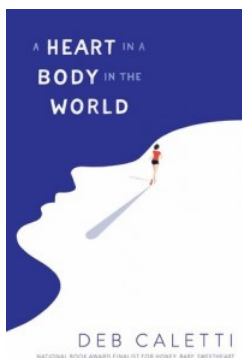

March 2019

the HUB Your Connection to Teen Collections
YALSA

Best Fiction for Young Adults 2019 Top Ten

During the Teen Feedback Session at the American Library Association's Midwinter Meeting, teens from Seattle and Oregon shared their opinions about the books on the Best Fiction for Young Adults 2019 list.

With their input, the Best Fiction for Young Adults (BFYA) 2019 Blogging team determined the BFYA 2019 Top Ten:

All of the titles are available through the Bridges Library System.

For help locating a title, stop by the Adult Reference Desk or call 262-782-4140, opt. 1

Brookfield
Public Library

Coming Attractions

Five Feet Apart

In theaters March 22, 2019

Based on a book by Rachael Lippincott, it is a romance about a boy and girl who both have cystic fibrosis and fall in love. Due to their weakened immune systems, they must stay five feet apart at all times.

The film adaptation stars Cole Sprouse, Haley Lu Richardson, and Claire Forlani.

The book is available in the Brookfield Public Library's Teen Scene

YA FICTION LIPPINCOTT RACHAEL

Did you know you that mobile printing is available at the Brookfield Public Library?

This service allows you to print from your laptop or mobile device from anywhere –home, school, restaurants or even the Library. The service is available during normal Library hours.

Complete instructions are available through the Library's website.

[www.brookfieldlibrary.com-General Information and Other Services-Mobile Printing](http://www.brookfieldlibrary.com-General Information and Other Services-Mobile Printing)

Happening at the Library in March

Introduction to Beekeeping

Tuesday, March 19, 7:00pm

Find out what the 'buzz' is all about! Beekeeper Hannah Vogelmann will give an introduction to beekeeping including: what the process entails, how to get started and where to find helpful resources.

From Hardscrabble to the White House: The Lives of Ulysses S. and Julia Dent Grant

Thursday, March 28, 7:00pm

Historical re-enactors Scott and Peggy Whitney will provide a presentation on the life experiences of the Ulysses S. and his wife Julia Dent Grant.

Teen Stuff
MARCH