Dear Friends,

Join us on an eleven-day journey to Germany to visit our sister city and explore southwest Germany. The Brookfield International Friendship Association, Inc., partnering with our friends in Seligenstadt Germany, has arranged a wonderful travel adventure. On our journey, we will explore the sights, history, and culture of our sister city as and southwest Germany, including day trips to France and Switzerland, with friends from Seligenstadt.

We will start out in Seligenstadt, exploring this 1200 year old city with it's historic charm and meeting new friends. We will stay in Seligenstadt for three days with a guided tour and time for exploring. We will also take a day trip to Aub, Germany to welcome a once-every-four-year reenactment of a merchant caravan on it's journey that will bring it to Seligenstadt in August for a grand festival.

Leaving Seligenstadt, we will travel southwest to Freiburg with a stop to visit and tour Heidelberg. Staying in Freiburg we will take daytrips by our coach bus to Triberg in the Black forest, Konstanz / Mainau, Zurich and Luzern in Switzerland, and Strasbourg & Colmar France.

We carefully planned the itinerary to combine exciting tours with ample leisure time for you relax and create your own adventures. We encourage you to make you reservation today and enjoy this experience with us!

Sincerely,

Harry Farchmin

President
