

Attention Water Utility Customers south of Bluemound Road – Please note you may be experiencing discolored water over the next week due to the Sunny Slope Water Tower being put back in service. This will be changing the direction of flow of water and can stir up the mains. The water is safe to use, it is just iron that is getting stirred up. Please use caution when washing light colored laundry. Thank you for your patience and understanding.